

Logic Systems

SMP Logic Systems Announces License of its Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Execution System (MES) Technology to Siemens AG

LOS ANGELES, CA, March 27, 2012 – SMP Logic Systems, a research based software development company focusing exclusively on pharmaceutical manufacturing industries, announces today that it has licensed its pharmaceutical manufacturing execution systems (“MES”) technology patents to Siemens AG. SMP’s MES technology patents are directed to pharmaceutical manufacturing including process and system management, continuous real-time quality monitoring, historical tracking, failure analysis, risk-based assessments, and real-time reports to business units.

About SMP Logic Systems

SMP Logic Systems is a research based software development company focusing exclusively on pharmaceutical manufacturing industries. Its products aim to revolutionize pharmaceutical manufacturing processes and systems allowing manufacturers to fully integrate process controls. SMP Logic Systems offers several platform technologies that enable pharmaceutical manufacturers to monitor and track the entire manufacturing process from inception to completion. The Company’s offices are located in Los Angeles, CA. For further information about SMP Logic Systems, please visit www.smplogicsystems.com

Contacts

SMP Logic Systems
ATTN: Press and Marketing Director
3460 Barry Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90066
info@smplogicsystems.com
